The following is a description of the Libertarian National Committee's 'best efforts' procedures for requesting donor address, employer, and occupation in compliance with 11 CFR 104.7(b)(1)(B).

All printed solicitations include a clear and conspicuous request for the contributor information inform the contributor of the requirements of federal law for the reporting of such information as follows:

'Election law requires us to use our best efforts to collect and report the name, mailing address, occupation and the name of the employer of individuals whose contributions exceed $200 in a calendar year. If you are currently not working, you may enter 'Retired' or 'Not Employed'.

The website contribution portal includes this request for information and requires it to be entered in order to complete an online donation.

If the information is not provided one follow-up, stand-alone effort is made to obtain this information, regardless of whether the contribution(s) was solicited or not. This effort is made no later than 30 days after receipt of the contribution in the form of a written request or an oral request documented in writing. (11 CFR 104.7(b)(2)) The requests o clearly ask for the missing information, without soliciting a contribution, o inform the contributor of the requirements of federal law for the reporting of such information, and o if the request is written, a pre-addressed post card or return envelope is included.

Contributor information received after the contribution(s) has been reported, is either a) filed with the next regularly scheduled report, in the form of memo transactions on the electronically filed Schedule A listing all the contributions for which additional information was received or b) in amendments filed on or before your next regularly scheduled reporting date, amendments to the report(s) originally disclosing the contribution(s). (11 CFR 104.7(b)(4))
